The abbreviations used in this index are as follows: (Art.) Article; (Anec.) Anecdote; (BR) Book Review; (C&D) Comment and Discussion; (LF) Leadership Forum; (NAMB) Nobody Asked Me, But . . . ; (NB) Notebook; (NRE) Naval Review Essay; (ON) Old Navy; (PN) Professional Note. When (Com.) is used, it designates comments on the item listed; these comments were published in subsequent issues of the Proceedings.

The subject classification section is based on letter-number combinations which are keyed to individual entries in the author-title section. If one wanted to look up entries on Admiral Thomas H. Moorer, he would find the entry in the subject section and the letter-number combination A-13. In the author section, A-13 is R.M. Ancell's article "The Path to Four Stars," which begins on page 46 of the January 1981 Proceedings and contains a number of references to Admiral Moorer. A comment on Ancell's article was published on page 103 of the March Proceedings. A blank space in the author-title section, as in item A-04, indicates it was written by the same author as the preceding item.

U.S. Naval Institute Proceedings Cumulative Index 1894-1977

Now for the first time, a complete index to the USNI's monthly magazine, Proceedings, is available in bound book form. Covering the first 104 years of this publication, the index is cross-referenced by author and subject, offering a convenient research tool to libraries, institutions, and individual readers who want to refer to material published in Proceedings through 1977. The index will be supplemented by the continued publication of the annual Proceedings index, which this year will be published in the Naval Review issue of Proceedings. March 1982/384 pages

List price: $18.95. Member's price: $15.16.
